

K-Love serves our local community by alerting us of events of interest, and providing us with music and news in a format not found elsewhere in Raleigh. We would be very disappointed by K-Love being displaced by an LPFM. K-Love serves to unite our communities and the communities across the country with positive and encouraging music and news. We won't listen to any other station.